Student's Guide

We are pleased that you have chosen to use materials from BiblicalTraining.org. We trust that you will find them to be of the highest quality and truly helpful in your own spiritual growth and that of your church. Please read through the following guidelines; they will help you make the best use of this guide.

Weekly schedule

Listen or watch the lesson. The lesson for each chapter is designed to be listened to outside of your meeting. Each lesson lasts for an hour. This is a crucial step. If the meeting time with your fellow students is going to be productive and encouraging, everyone in the group needs to have listened to and wrestled with the lesson.

Take notes. This guide has the outline for each lesson with a summary of the teaching for each major point. If you are unable to take notes while listening to the lesson, please work through the guide at some point before your meeting.

Questions. Each chapter closes with a series of questions. Some of the questions are data based, confirming that you understand the information. Other questions are more reflective, helping you move beyond the important accumulation of knowledge to challenging you to think through what you are learning about God, yourself and others, and finally to application. Our encouragement is to think through your answers before your meeting and then use the meeting to share your thoughts and interact with others.

Meeting. Meet together with your group.

Meeting Together

While some people may have to study on their own, we strongly recommend finding a group with which you can study.

A group provides encouragement to finish the class.

Interacting with others, their understanding and insight, is the most effective way to sharpen your own thoughts and beliefs.

Just as you will need the help of others from time to time, so also they will need your help.

Mentor's Guide

If you are leading the group or mentoring an individual, here are some suggestions that should help you.

Your role is to facilitate. This is not an opportunity for you to teach. In fact, the less visible role you take, the better. Your role is to listen and bring out the best in the other people.

Preparation. Be sure to have done your homework thoroughly. Have listened to the lesson and think carefully through the questions. Have an answer for each question that will get the conversation going. A great question is, "What is the Lord teaching you this week?"

Creativity. What works to help one person understand may not help another. So listen to the conversation and pray that the Lord help you bring out the greatest interaction among all the people.

Correct error. This is difficult. If someone says something that isn't right, you don't want to come down on them, telling them they are wrong and shutting down their participation. On the other hand, if you let an obvious error pass, the rest of the group may think you agree and what was said was correct. So look for gracious ways to suggest that perhaps the person's comment was incorrect.

Focus. Stay focused on Jesus and the Bible, not on church or religious traditions.

Lead the discussion. People don't want to listen to a sharing of common ignorance. Lead by asking questions that will prompt others to think.

Silence. Don't be afraid of silence. It may mean nothing more than people are thinking. But if the conversation lags, then ask thought-provoking questions to get the discussion started, and then step out of the way.

Discipleship. Be acutely aware of how you can mentor the people in the group. Meet with them for coffee. Share some life with them. Jesus' Great Commission is to teach people to obey, and the only way this happens is in relationship.

Men and women. Be aware that men and women tend to learn differently. Don't ask the men to become women in how they answer.

Privacy. All discussions are private, not to be shared outside the group unless otherwise specified.

Goal. The goal of this study is not just increased knowledge; it is transformation. Don't be content with people getting the "right" answers. The Pharisees got the "right" answer, and many of them never made it to heaven (Matt 5:20).

Relationships. Share everyone's name, email and phone number so people can communicate during the week and follow up on prayer requests. You may want to set up a way to share throughout the week using Slack or WhatsApp.

Finish well. Encourage the people to make the necessary commitment to do the work, think reflectively over the questions, and complete the class.

Prayer. Begin and end every meeting with prayer. Please don't do the quick "one-prayer-covers-all" approach. Manage the time so all of you can pray over what you have learned and with what you have been challenged. Pray regularly for each individual in the meeting.

HOW BIG IS YOUR GOD

Has he become _____

Or is he the God of creation, who ...

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

"In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth"
(Genesis 1:1).

QUESTIONS

In talking about the days of creation, please stay away from the discussion of literal 6 days. Focus on things that we can agree on.

Head

1. Share your experiences in the debate of science and religion over creation. What have been some of the common arguments? Which ones are stronger? Weaker? Have these discussions enlarged your faith? Made you disgusted?
2. Have you ever talked with someone who truly believes in their horoscope? What was it like to talk with them about it? Why do they think that the stars control their lives?

Heart

3. Have you thought much about the relationship between your view of creation and your view of God? What were some of your ideas before listening to this talk?
4. Does the world feel to you like it is orderly, created with purpose? If not, how would it affect you if it were orderly and purposeful? What would it look like? (We'll be getting more into this topic in two talks.)

5. Does your view of God mesh with the first three days of creation? Is he this big, or is he smaller? If so, what has happened in life to him in your thinking diminish? (It is really important to be honest with this question. Hiding behind a religious mask wouldn't help.)
6. How different would your life be if in fact you were not the rest of God's direct creative work? What if the fish crawled up on the land all by itself?
7. Saying that God is the "Creator of heaven and earth" is such a common phrase. How can we help one another to see the immensity of the statement? God speaks, and time begins.

Hands

8. One of the byproducts of a godless form of evolution is that people feel lost, empty, without meaning, an accident of nature. How could you tell them the biblical story of creation in such a way that it would help them? Perhaps you should do a little role-playing in your group.
9. Many people believe that they are inherently good. In other words, they don't see that their goodness is derived from God's creative activity and proclamation that he makes them good. Have you ever asked them why? It might be a helpful discussion. Why do they think they are good, especially in light of history that chronicles one devastating war after another?

10. Share some stories about how the world around you, whether it be school or the media, attacks the idea that our God alone created all things. How could you move the conversation to the point that you could tell them they are responding to sin in their hearts (other than very carefully)?
11. Share times in your life when God has become so small that the gods of this world seem stronger and more inviting. Please be honest. What were the effects on you and perhaps on your family? Were you happy?
12. Now share times when God became so great in your eyes that he was your greatest joy and powerful enough to destroy all your enemies. Were you happy?

2 Corinthians 3:18

1 John 3:2

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

“So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them” (Genesis 1:27).

QUESTIONS

Head

1. Can you remember the order of creation? Using the chart from last week will help.

Heart

2. Does it make sense to say that the apex of creation was Day 6 and the creation of Adam and Eve? How does the world work against this teaching? How do you feel about animal rights?
3. Have you ever known anyone who believes in evolution and that they are here by some cosmic mistake? Explain to the others in your group how this core belief impacted their beliefs in other areas? How did they look for significance and meaning? What is it like to think your very existence is a fluke?
4. What are some of our human qualities that most help us reflect God’s image to the world? Which of these qualities are you most thankful for?

Hands

5. Learning to derive our dignity and sense of worth from creation can be a difficult task. I shared the story of the young lady with anorexia to help you move into application. What are some other ways in which the world has destroyed your sense of God-given worth? One example that I did not cover was the issue of sexual abuse and its devastating effects on self-image. Are there others?

6. I wanted you to see that we were created in God's image, and some day we will look like him. But in the meantime, the path of discipleship should be seen as a journey towards Christ-likeness. Does this image help? How does it encourage spiritual transformation?

3. _____

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

"I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel" (Genesis 3:15).

There is a lot to process in Genesis 3. I would really encourage you to spend time together going through these questions this week and asking how they apply to us.

QUESTIONS

Head

1. What are some examples from our own lives where a temptation was clearly based on a misrepresentation of God's goodness and character and motivated by our lack of faith? My guess is that it will be hard to find a temptation that is not based on this misrepresentation.
2. Why ultimately is all temptation trying to remove the distinction between God and creation?
3. What are your thoughts about Adam's passivity?

Heart

4. Sin always moves from the heart to the hands, and yet so much of what we try to do in church is to fix the outward appearances (the hands) and not deal with the real issue (the heart). What would a church or small group look like that took this seriously? What does Jesus say about this?
5. Sin causes us to do silly things; but when we are in the midst of them, they don't appear silly. How can we become sensitive to the effects of sin and learn to just accept the blame and God's forgiveness?

6. How have you blamed God for your sin? This is a really important question, and it can cut deeply into our hearts, so be careful in how you answer this. Many people have suffered such intense evil done against them that it is almost impossible to see how God could love them.

Hands

7. What are the silliest (and true) examples of you blaming someone else for your own problems?
8. It is easy to think of God in stereotypical terms as an angry father bent on judgment. How can the example of judgment and redemption going hand-in-hand in the Garden encourage us to think of God properly today?
9. The other interpretation of the curse on Eve is that despite the pain of childbirth she will still desire to be with her husband (not just sexually), and the order of creation will still be maintained with Adam as the head of the marriage. Do you prefer this interpretation or the one I gave in the sermon?
10. I don't think of heaven that much. As I get older, I certainly think about it more. How can we encourage one another towards love and good works with the image of heaven in Revelation 21 and 22, and the tree of life?

The Flood

Genesis 6-9

INTRODUCTION

What is the major teaching in Genesis since Adam and Eve?

GOD AS JUDGE (6:5-7)

Sin _____ God.

Is the story of the flood a children's story?

GOD AS REDEEMER

In which ways does God redeem his creation?

How is the flood/ark like the Garden of Eden and the Cross?

NOAH IS A MAN OF FAITH

Hebrews 11:1, 6, 7; 2 Peter 2:5

How do we see Noah’s faith showing itself?

STORY OF THE FLOOD

POST-DELUVIAN RE-CREATED WORLD

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____

CONCLUSION

1. When you see rain ...
2. When you see a rainbow ...

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

"Noah did this; he did all that God commanded him" (Genesis 6:22).

QUESTIONS

Head

1. Adam and Eve walked in the very presence of God. Eight generations later, the entire earth (except for Noah) was devoid of anything good. How does that happen? Have you ever seen the decay into unrighteousness over even a few generations?
2. How do you think Noah's neighbors reacted when it started to rain? First day of rain, then the second day, etc.
3. What is God asking you to do right now that seems silly, especially to those around you, but you know that he is calling you to respond in faith? Can you think of any historical characters other than Hudson Taylor and Noah who found themselves in this situation?

Heart

4. When was the last time you thought that a certain sin wasn't that big of a deal (and I am not talking about speeding or not coming to a full stop at a stop sign)? Why did you feel that way? Has anything changed?
5. How can we learn to see rain as a reminder of God's judgment? If any of you have experienced a full storm in the southern parts of the United States, tell the rest of the people what they are like, how horrifying constant thunder can be. Maybe it will help them visualize the Flood story better.

Hands

6. So often God is seen as an unhappy, vengeful old meanie. How would you take the idea of sin "grieving" the heart of God to explain the necessity of punishment to someone?
7. How could you tell the story of the flood to your children and properly balance God's judgment and redemption?
8. This is a good time for a little role playing. One of you is God. One is Noah. Another is his wife (and perhaps children). The rest in your group are Noah's neighbors. Tell the story and bring out the radicalness of Noah's faithful obedience.

Abraham's Covenant

Genesis 12,15

GOD'S CALL ON ABRAHAM (GENESIS 12:1-4)

What did Abraham need to do in order to receive God's promises?

What were God's two basic promises?

1. _____

2. _____

What are the two steps to receiving God’s promises?

1. _____

2. _____

Abraham has a choice to make. He chooses to _____ God’s promises and then _____ by leaving Haran.

COVENANT CEREMONY (GENESIS 15)

Define “Covenant”:

What was Abraham’s question of faith?

Define “faith”? (hint: Rom 4:21)

What always results from true faith?

WHAT DOES GOD EXPECT OF US?

1. _____

2. _____

Are you fully convinced?

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

"Abraham believed the Lord, and he counted it to him as righteousness" (Genesis 15:6).

QUESTIONS

Head

1. What do you think about the connection between faith and faithful action? Think of Abraham as the biblical paradigm for faith, and then think about perhaps what you have been taught or what you have experienced. How do they line up?
2. How would you define "faith"? Use only terminology that a non-Christian would understand.

Heart

3. Have you ever questioned God as an expression of your faith? How were these experiences different from those times you cried out to God because you lacked the faith?
4. What are some of the things we substitute for faith? In other words, what are some of the things that replace faith and keep us from having to really have faith in God?
5. What are some areas in which God is calling you to trust him? What is the world telling you to do instead? Why is trust in God so hard (at least some of the time)?

Hands

6. Much of American Christianity historically has emphasized faith but has had very little to say about faithful obedience. Now that you have thought through some of these issues, how do you think the paradigm of Abraham's faith measures up to yours?
7. Share some times in which you cried out, "I believe. Help my unbelief!" What drove you to this point, and how did it all turn out?

Joseph

Genesis 37-50

GOD'S PROMISE TO ABRAHAM

Abraham's son was _____, who married _____. They had twin boys named _____ and _____. _____ married _____ and _____ and they had twelve sons. The story of redemption centers on _____.

STORY OF JOSEPH

Theme: God is so _____ and so _____ to his covenantal promises, that He will keep those promises even if it means working in the midst of human _____.

1. Sold as a slave to Potiphar. What is the main point of 39:2-6?

2. Joseph refuses the advances of Potiphar's wife and is thrown in jail. What is the main point of 39:21-23?

3. Joseph interprets the dreams of the Baker and Cupbearer. What was his one request?

4. Joseph interprets Pharaoh's dreams. How does God keep his promises to Abraham through Joseph?

5. Joseph's brothers come to Egypt

In your own words, what did Joseph tell his brothers about their sinful intentions in selling him, and God's gracious purposes in sending him ahead of them to Egypt?

WHAT DO WE LEARN FROM THE JOSEPH STORY?

1. God is _____. (Ps 115:3)

2. God's _____ allows him to keep his _____, even in the midst of human _____. (Job 34:10-12)

Summarize Romans 8:28-29

3. We are called to _____. (Isaiah 55:8-9)

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

"You meant evil against me, but God meant it for good"
(Genesis 50:20).

QUESTIONS

Head

1. Have you had any bad experiences with people who emphasized the sovereignty of God? Share them with your group. It is important not to throw the biblical concept away because it is misused by some.

2. How do you feel about the biblical definition of sovereignty: "God does whatever he pleases"? Is that encouraging or discouraging? Do you feel that it contradicts any other beliefs you hold?

Heart

3. When we are in the midst of pain or injustice, there is a tendency to doubt God's goodness, presence, and power. How can the story of Joseph be an encouragement to you in the midst of your struggles?
4. Have you gone through any experiences where you can identify with Joseph? How did your responses compare to his? What can you learn?
5. What would you have done in Joseph's shoes when his brothers stood before him?

Hands

6. What good is God working in your right now as you go through difficult experiences? How are the difficult times helping you look more and more like Jesus?
7. The Joseph story calls us to respond in faith. What would faith look like right now in the midst of the difficulties of your life?

Plagues and Glory

Exodus 1-14

INTRODUCTION

How does God's covenant with Abraham (Genesis 15:13-14) prepare the stage for the Exodus?

BURNING BUSH (EXODUS 3)

God's name is spelled with four consonants ____ and includes at least the three ideas of:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

MOSES AND AARON HEAD TOWARD EGYPT (4:21-23)

1. 6:6-8. God will keep his: _____

2. 7:3-5. Yahweh will declare: _____

Why did God harden Pharaoh’s heart?

TEN PLAGUES (7:14 - CHAPTER 10)

Same scenario:

Final story of the Exodus?

WHAT DO WE LEARN?

1. _____

Exodus 14:13-14

2. God is most interested in _____

Define it in reverse

Why must God be most interested in himself?

Is God fair? (Romans 9:17-21)

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

"God said to Moses, 'I AM WHO I AM.' And he said, 'Say this to the people of Israel, 'I AM has sent me to you'''" (Exodus 3:14).

QUESTIONS

Head

1. In what ways does the world attack the doctrine of the uniqueness of God? In what ways does it try to relegate our God to a place of equality with other gods, or even below the gods of this world?
2. I don't spend much time talking about the immutability of God, but it is worth reflecting on. What would it be like if God were changeable? How would it impact our understanding of him and how he relates to us?

Heart

3. God keeps his promises. We talked about this last week, and it is one of the central teachings in this passage as well. How can a knowledge of the exodus encourage us to respond to God in faith, even in the midst of difficult times?
4. What do you think of God hardening Pharaoh's heart? Was he fair to do this and still hold him responsible? (Please do not respond with the quick "churchy" answer, but answer out of your heart and theological convictions.) Does God ever harden your heart or the heart of others that you know? Why did he do that? What was the consequence?

5. Have you ever struggled with the idea of God being most interested in his own glory? As strange as it might sound to some, it is a (if not “the”) central theme of the Bible. How would you explain the idea in your own words? How would you keep God from sounding like an egotistical maniac?

Hands

6. I rarely (if ever) use a movie to illustrate a biblical point, but if you have access to the recent cartoon movie of Joseph, you may want to watch the ending. Be sure to keep the volume turned up. It is a helpful tool to show us the awesomeness of the parting of the Red Sea.
7. How can we help each other remember God’s past faithfulness? When our friends are getting short-sighted and not seeing the glory of God’ past faithfulness, how can we help them look back to God’s faithfulness in their past, and even further to God’s faithfulness on the banks of the Red Sea?
8. No present-day author does this better than John Piper, pastor at Bethlehem Baptist in Minneapolis, Minnesota. If you have read any of his books, help the people you are with to understand his message. If you have not yet read his books, please read “Don’t Waste Your Life.” It is his best book to help you understand this concept. His main book is Desiring God: Meditations of a Christian Hedonist. This is a phrase he has developed (out of Jonathan Edwards) to show that God is most glorified in us when we are most satisfied in him.

1. _____ (Exodus 33:11)

2. _____ (Exodus 33:12ff.)

What was Moses' greatest fear?

At the deepest level, what defines the people of God?

HOW DOES EXODUS 34:9 ILLUSTRATE THE ABC'S OF THE GOSPEL?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

QUESTION OF THE TABERNACLE

1. _____

2. _____

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

"The Lord used to speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend" (Exodus 33:11).

QUESTIONS

Head

1. All people, but especially younger people, struggle to know their place in the world. Why are they here? Where do they fit in? What kind of answers would you get if you asked ten people this question (and not especially religious people)?
2. Now ask the same questions to someone who has gone to church. Why are they on earth? What is their purpose? Apart from the religious language they may use, are their answers really any different?
3. How can you explain to a non-religious person that God desires to live in relationship with his creation? What kind of language would you use? What would you expect their answers to be? Have they ever heard of this, or is their view of Christianity basically what people do in buildings called churches?

Heart

4. How do you explain the failure of the Israelites to remain true to Yahweh? How can a person go through a series of miracles as astonishing as the Plagues and the Crossing of the Red Sea and then not remain faithful? And yet, before we get too hard on the Israelites, have we done the same thing?

5. Moses would rather live in the desert with God's presence, than to live in the land flowing with milk and honey yet without God's presence. Need to reflect on this one for a bit. Are you more like Moses or more like the Israelites? Why? Does this affect your thinking about being a friend of God?
6. Are you defined more by external criteria (like David the tour guide) or more by internal criteria? Again, please be honest. Perhaps I should ask the question this way: how do external criteria still define who you are. "I am a person who goes to church" rather than, "I am a person who longs for the friendship of God and my family."

Hands

7. If we conceived of Christianity primarily as a friendship with God (and hence a friendship with our brothers and sisters), how would it change our language, "church," goals, priorities, activities, and many other things? This is an important question and one that is often ignored because it questions too many of our cherished religious activities. So be honest.

The Holiness of God

Leviticus

WHAT IS THE PRIMARY TEACHING IN THE BOOK OF LEVITICUS?

What does the word "holy" mean?

Your part in the sacrifice (Leviticus 1:3-9)?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

The sinner is _____ for his own sin.

THEME #1:

God's _____ drives the sacrificial system.

THEME #2:

1. _____

Sin ultimately is against _____ .

2. _____

Theme #3:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Leviticus and the Cross

Hebrews 9:22-10:4

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

“It is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins” (Hebrews 10:4).

QUESTIONS

Head

1. Have you ever read through Leviticus? If not, why? If you have, what were your general impressions?
2. Have you thought about God’s holiness being the root cause of the need to punish sin? If not, why did you think sin had to be punished? What are some other reasons why punishment is necessary?

3. How does a knowledge of the holiness of God and the subsequent necessity of punishment affect how you talk about sin and punishment and judgment to a non-believer?

Heart

4. What it take to really come to an understanding that all sin, ultimately, is against God? How can we so personalize our sin so that we may flee from it?
5. What are we going to do about white lies? Where do we draw the line? Do we shade the truth so as to avoid the consequences? Do we come to a complete stop at a stop sign? What should we do about those times in our lives when we are not “rigorously honest”?

Hands

6. Okay. So maybe the illustration of “Fluffy” is a bit over the top, but how would you convey to your friends the lessons of the sacrificial system in a way that wouldn’t lessen the horror of sin?
7. The Old Testament is full of God’s condemnation of religious rituals done apart from a heart cleansed of sin. It would be foolish, would it not, to assume that this is true of everyone else except our church? How can we come to a deeper and truer understanding that religious rituals undertaken by a heart full of unconfessed sin (gossip, slander, anger, lack of forgiveness, pride, etc.) make God sick to his stomach?

Sold Out to God ("Shema")

Deuteronomy 6:4-5

Summary of Exodus through Numbers

The Lord wants to _____ if they will _____.

If they spurn God he will _____.

1. MONOTHEISM

Deuteronomy 6:4 is the "Shema." What does it teach us?

Monotheism leads to a prohibition against _____.

Deuteronomy 4:15-19a, 23-24.

CHALLENGE OF THE SHEMA

1. _____

2. _____

What are your idols?

2. TOTAL DEVOTION – “FULLY-DEVOTED DISCIPLES”

What does the second part of the Shema teach us?

What is the relationship between love and obedience?

What does it mean to “compartmentalize” God?

GOD DESIRES IS TO _____ US.

How has this teaching been perverted?

What is required for the Lord's blessing?

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

"Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might" (Hebrews 10:4-5).

Please read Deuteronomy 6:4-5 if you are planning on reading through these Reflection Questions before the sermon. Saying that God is "One" is an affirmation of monotheism, that there is only one God. And if there is only one God, then all idolatry is wrong. Most of the questions come out of this truth as expressed in these verses.

QUESTIONS

Head

1. How would you define "god"? What were the gods of Israel's day, and what are the gods of today?

Heart

2. Taking an honest look at your heart, day-timer, and wallet, what are the gods (or "idols" if you prefer) that you struggle with? Your friends struggle with?
3. "Fully devoted disciples" of Jesus are those who not only go through the gate but walk the path of discipleship. Is it possible to truly love God and not walk the walk? Is it possible to be a part-time follower of Jesus and end up in heaven? Are you sure? Are you willing to bet your eternity on your answer? You are!
4. Christianity is so often seen as just another set of rules. How can we break this pattern of thinking and see that what God desires is a heart fully committed to him and in love with him, and then see that a heart so inclined is going to show itself in our day-to-day lives?
5. Do you really believe that God's desire is to bless? Take a long look at the image of God that you carry around with you; is he the type of father whose greatest desire is to bless? If so, why do you truly feel that way? If not, why do you think the way you do about him? (By the way, if you answer that first question "Yes," I would ask you if you are being honest. For most of us, our image of God is mixed; I don't know if I have ever met anyone who truly and fully understands that God's desire is to bless and not to curse.)

Hands

6. What safeguards can we put in place to help us worship the one true God and not our modern idols?
7. Many people, if we are honest, probably are not that concerned about their habit of worshipping idols. They do their religious service to Yahweh and then get on with the really fun work of idol worship, thinking that all Yahweh desires is their token appearance at a building on Sunday morning and lip service throughout the week. How can we pray, and how can we act, so as to break this pattern of idolatry?

Faith is not Genetic

JUDGES: "THE WORST OF TIMES"

What happened to make things go bad?

What did Joshua's generation fail to do?

What are the four stages of the cycle we see in Judges?

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____
- 4. _____

NECESSITY OF COVENANT RENEWAL

What is the responsibility of the older generations?

What is the responsibility of the younger generation?

OBJECT LESSON

Joshua 24:15 "choose this day whom you will serve.... As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

Joshua 22:5 "Only be very careful to observe the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments and to cling to him and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul."

Deut 6:4-9

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

"And the people served the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work that the Lord had done for Israel" (Judges 2:7).

QUESTIONS

Head

1. What are some of the things that you – if you have children – have passed on to your children, both physical and spiritual?
2. Do you know of any families or churches that can be described as, “The Best of Times”? What criteria are you using to measure their “success”? What have they done? What have they not done? What is it about their character that makes them stand out as a model?
3. Do you know of any families or churches that fell, even though the older generation were (or seemed to be) godly? What led to this failure?

Heart

4. We measure what is most important. What measurement tools do you use for your family and your church? What do those measurement tools tell you about your priorities? How do you measure spiritual growth? Is it possible?
5. Who has made the greatest impact on your life spiritually? Why? Are you doing the same for others?

Hands

6. If it is true that I cannot impart (to others) what I myself do not possess, then it starts with me. How can we as a community of believers form a culture in which a person's spiritual growth is the most important thing? What stands in the way? What "churchy" things clamor for attention, clamor to be the more important things? How does the way we "do church" elevate these false goals to a place of pre-eminence?

7. If you are not sure how to answer these difficult questions, ask a young person in your church what he thinks is important to the church. This is not to say that young people have the right answers, but they do tend to pick up what the institution thinks is important. You might be surprised as to their answers. You could also find an older person who is a new believer. This is not a question of what ought to be. It is a question of what appears to be.

4. How have you learned that protection does not ultimately lie in external realities, but only with God?
5. Why don't people get the point, even when it is preached and taught over and over and over again? What have you been slow to learn? What were the consequences?
6. What lessons do you take away from this story of Hannah, Samuel & Israel's choosing a king?

QUESTIONS

Head

1. How will you retell the story of David and Goliath and move the attention properly to the main player of the drama, to God?

Heart

2. It's really hard to not look on the outside, isn't it? It is hard to remember that what the Lord values is what is inside, issues of character and faith and not what the world values. Have you discovered any habits that help you not draw quick judgments based on externals?
3. Is the fearful response of the Israelite armies that surprising? Even though they had experienced God's power in the past, their fear overcame them in the present. Has that ever happened to you? Why do you think you weren't able to draw strength from God's past faithfulness?
4. What would it take for you to learn to respond in faith like David? What would it take for you to be the kind of person who does not react in fear?
5. Have you ever played it safe and later realized that you lost a great opportunity to respond in faith? How do you feel about it now?

1. Have you ever experienced the kind of betrayal that David did at the hands of Saul? How did it make you feel? What did you want to do? What did you do?

Heart

2. Have you ever experienced the kind of betrayal that David did at the hands of Saul? How did it make you feel? What did you want to do? What did you do?

5. Recount the times when God made you lie down in green pastures? What were those pastures? In what ways was your soul restored?

7. How has God abundantly provided for you? A friend of mine, who translated the Bible in Africa for two decades, once said that if you have carpet, you are rich. How do you feel about that? Really feel about that?

Hands

8. It would be nice – at one level – if God would keep us out of difficult times, but it is in the midst of the trying times that our faith can really show itself and grow. Do you have any stories of victory in which your faith did grow? Did not grow? What was the difference?

1. _____

2. _____

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

"Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit" (Psalm 51:10-12).

QUESTIONS

Head

1. What are some examples of good people falling into sin? (Don't enjoy this part of the discussion too much, or spend much time on it.) How does seeing their failure help you think about your own failures? (Please, no excuses.)
2. What are some ways in which we paint sin as gray? How can we learn to see sin as it is? Can you think of any times in which God's forgiveness was as complete as your confession?
3. What are some examples of the difference between total forgiveness and ongoing consequences?

Heart

4. Have you ever been confronted in your sin? Who was your Nathan? How did you respond? What have you learned about yourself by how you responded?
5. How have you partially confessed? How does a person admit sin, but not totally?
6. Why do you think you should be forgiven? If you are honest, how have you bargained with God? Be sure to end.

7. Have you ever been so aware of your sin that all you could do was open Ps 51 and read it? What were the effects (short- and long-term) of the experience?

Hands

8. It is sad, isn't it, when a person decides to dig his or her heels in and refuse to confess. Do you know of examples of people (and be kind) whose lives were fundamentally damaged by a refusal to confess what everyone else knew to be true? What were the consequences? And do you know of people whose defining moment was the full confession of sin and the ensuing consequences (be lavish in your praise)?

Wisdom is as wisdom does!

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction" (Proverbs 1:7).

QUESTIONS

Head

1. If you could ask God for anything, honestly, what would it be?
2. How would you define “wise”?

Heart

3. “Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart” (Proverbs 3:3). How would you bind them? If you could have anything “bound” to your heart, would it be “steadfast love and faithfulness,” or something else?
4. We could talk about a lot of the proverbs, but this one is especially convicting. “A tranquil heart gives life to the flesh, but envy makes the bones rot” (Proverbs 14:30). Are you tranquil? How has it impacted your physical health? What about the reverse; how has stress rotted your bones?
5. Are you wise or a fool? In honesty, we are probably a mixture of both. In what ways are you wise? In what ways are you foolish, not listening to God but to your friends?

Hands

6. Do you tend to look at the long term or short term? What have you found to be the disadvantages of short term vision?
7. Do you really believe God knows best? How have your actions shown that, and how have they not shown that?

QUESTIONS

Head

Heart

3. Do you ever wonder if Satan might be right about you? Are you a Christ-follower because he has blessed you? What would happen if you lost all your family and wealth? Hard to know the answer to that.
4. Have you ever been in a situation in which the pain caused you to wonder if God could really be trusted? Share it with the group. What in particular made you question God? What helped you work through it (either in the past or the present)?
5. Has your faith ever been questioned because of the suffering you were experiencing? How did it make you feel? What did you say in that situation? Would you say something different now?

6. How has God – not information about him but a vision of who he is – been the answer for the suffering in your life, or has he?

Hands

7. Have you ever been Elihu to someone? Has anyone been Elihu to you? Share the circumstances. Was it helpful?
8. How can we work toward a vision of God in all his wisdom and power so that when difficult times come, we will respond properly? Like Job we probably would prefer to learn these lessons before the trials come.
9. What stops us from accepting the fact that God owes us nothing and we are not on his level and in fact have no rights before him? Do you agree or disagree with that statement?

VISION OF GOD'S THRONE ROOM

Isaiah 6:1-4

How would you describe God's majesty and power to someone only with words?

What is the significance of the Seraphim covering their feet and eyes?

GOD OF GLORY (6:5)

Define "holy" when applied to people.

Define "holy" when applied to God

Glory is the _____ representation of _____.

GOD OF JUDGMENT

How does Isaiah respond when he sees God in all His glory?

GOD OF SALVATION (6:6-8)

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

“Woe to me!” I cried. “I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the Lord Almighty” (Isaiah 6:5).

QUESTIONS

Head

1. What is the main point of this lesson?
2. What are some ways that we can describe the might and authority and power of God? Avoid using “religious” language that may be so familiar that it means almost nothing.
3. Try to describe the “glory” and “holiness” of God without using those same words. What pictures can we paint in our mind’s eye that will help?

Heart

4. How big is your God? What personal tendencies do you have that make God seem small? Worry? Busyness? Past hurts? What are you going to do about it?

5. Have you ever been faced with the glory and majesty of God so that all you could see is your sin? What happened? Are you still as keenly aware of your sin, or have the images and feelings drifted into the past?

Hands

6. God's glory is all around us, in the infinite variety and splendor of his creation. Go out in nature, even if it is your back yard, and identify 20 things you see, hear, smell, and touch, all of which are common, but if seen through the attentive eyes of faith, proclaim the glory of God. Don't keep it to yourself, but share it with a friend, co-worker, or family member.
7. Share the story of your conversion with someone. Do your children know? Neighbors? Friends? Have you thanked God recently for the knowledge that you have been forgiven, saved, and restored? Has your salvation propelled you into a life of service to the King, regardless of your specific job? What would it look like if you said to God, "Here I am. Send me," and he did?

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE WEEK

“All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned – every one – to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all” (Isaiah 53:6).

QUESTIONS

Head

- 1. What was the main point of the sermon today?

2. It is helpful to check your cross references and see how Jesus fulfilled every verse in the Servant passages. How do you think your friends would respond to the claim that 700 years before Jesus died, Isaiah saw it?
3. What are some ways in which the exaltation of Jesus is made even greater when compared to his humiliation? What specific events in the New Testament may make this clearer for you? For me, it is being beaten by the soldiers before the crucifixion.
4. Can you think of any other ways to help understand what it means that Jesus died “for” my sins?

Heart

5. Do you know of any stories of people who think their past sins were so bad that God could not forgive them? Have you ever done the same sin over and over to the point that you give up asking for forgiveness?

Hands

6. Without becoming morbid, how can you help yourself and others understand the horribleness of Jesus being “crushed” for our sins?
7. What are ways in which people try to pay the penalty for their own sins? How can you help them see that God’s chastisement was laid on Jesus, not them, and that Jesus became their sin?

QUESTIONS

Head

1. Although I did not spend a lot of time on the topic, God's punishment for social injustice is a dominant theme in Micah. The prophets often speak about injustice in terms of oppression of the fatherless and widows. Look at James 1:27 and spend time reflecting on how this might affect you.
2. Reread Isaiah 1:11-7 and ask yourself if the prophet's message has any application to you or to someone you know.

Heart

3. The human tendency is to think that Scripture applies to the “other” person but not to yourself. Is there a possibility that you think, at least in some areas of your life, that God will ignore sin because you are doing religious things in other areas of your life? This is a good time for self-examination.
4. Is it possible that you think you are somehow special and not subject to God’s judgment when you sin?
5. Have there been any events in your life when you thought certain sins would be ignored because you go to church?

3. Think back over those times when you have not been willing to forgive. What did it feel like? What drove you
